

Dear Parents,

	Good News! We are pleased to let you know that Ms Johnson’s baby girls arrived safely last week ;Lyla and Lana .Mother and babies are doing well .
	Book Fair We have arrange for the Book Fair to come to school for the week, starting 20th June. A lovely range of books to buy from EYFS to Year Six. Some will even have a three for two offers! The books will be on sale before and after school that week.
	Class Photos The children will be having their annual class photos taken on Monday 22nd May Please ensure , as they usually are, children come to school in their uniform. Please let your child’s class teacher know if you do NOT want your child to be included on this photo.
	Holidays in term time Please can I remind all parents that holidays in term time are not permitted and will be recorded as unauthorised absence. This may result in a referral to Education Welfare Services and a fine. If you are considering taking your child out of school, please complete the form that can be requested from the main school office.
	Parent Governors Nominations have closed and I am pleased to inform you that two nominations were received for Parent Governors s – both of which have been appointed to the LGB without the need for an election the remaining vacancy will be advertised in the Autumn. The two new governors are Stuart Watson, who has a child in EYFS and Laura Kelliher whose twins are in year two.
	Well Done Everyone! Our year six and year two children have now all taken their SAT tests in school. We are very proud of all our children for how hard they tried in the tests, applying themselves and persevering with some very tricky questions. Well done to everyone and a big thank you also to the teachers for supporting the children during this busy time.
	Breakfast Club – update At the governors meeting this week, it was agreed to go ahead and set up a breakfast club due to the response from parents. We are now sorting the logistics so WATCH THIS SPACE!
	Nursery Dinners - Update Nursery dinners for those children who have been attending full time start after the half term holidays. These places are limited and reviewed regularly.
